

WINTER HOLIDAY HOMEWORK (2025-26)

CLASS III

Christmas brings joy and cheer,
With gifts, lights, and smiles so dear.
The New Year comes with hopes so bright,
New dreams to try, new goals in sight.

May love and peace stay all year through,
Happy Christmas and New Year to you!

Wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Winter vacation is a much-awaited break that gives us time to relax and refresh our minds. It allows us to enjoy the cool weather, celebrate festivals, and spend quality time with our family and loved ones. Winter vacation not only brings happiness and enjoyment but also prepares us to return to school with renewed energy, confidence, and enthusiasm for learning. So, take good care of yourself, eat healthy food, exercise daily and read as many storybooks as you can.

Q1. Read the following text and answer the questions given at the end:

Good Habits

Mudit has a wonderful habit. He reads all the books he can find during his free time. His friends tease him as he would rather read than play video games on the mobile or the computer. His parents and teachers are very proud of his habit as they believe reading will help him learn about the world around him. His parents buy him lots of books to read on a regular basis. One day while reading about volcanoes, Mudit told all his friends what they were and what causes them to erupt.

Most of his friends were not interested in the information. The next week, the Science teacher gave the students an activity on “Volcanoes.” They had to prepare a project in groups, the students with the best project would get a medal.

All the students wanted Mudit in their group as they were sure the group with Mudit would win the competition. The students now realized the importance of reading and they stopped teasing Mudit and now started asking him for tips on some good books to read. The teacher was very happy with her class and planned a trip to the library so that everyone could get books to read.
